Detailed description of complaint (be as detailed as you possibly can and stipulate specific dates

I applied for debt review with DebtBusters (debt counsellor Saul Allardice, NCRDC4172) on 1 Feb 2026 and pay R17,000 a month through the PDA. Nine months later there is no court order and my credit providers still charge full contractual interest. 9 Apr 2026: DebtBusters said negotiations were complete and a summary was attached; nothing was attached. 23 Jun 2026: I was told none of my FNB accounts were accepted. My portal balance rose from about R745,000 to R1,240,177. 13 Jul 2026: I asked in writing for the summary, the acceptances, the court status and a reconciliation; I followed up on 27 Jul, 3 Aug, 11 Aug and 28 Aug, and the only reply (31 Aug) said it had been referred to legal. 3 Aug: I was asked for my antenuptial contract a day before the hearing and sent it within 13 minutes. 4 Aug: the hearing was postponed; the Magistrate wanted updated proof of income and residence, which I was only asked for on 4 Sep and sent on 7 Sep. 9 Sep: the savings sheet was sent for the first time, five months late. 10 Sep: I showed that two FNB accounts were captured at about a tenth of their balances: FNB Credit Card R22,339.91 against R242,993 on the portal (R244,951 on my credit report); FNB Residual ...081 R27,042.34 against R293,580. The offers of R650 and R750 a month do not cover the interest, which is likely why FNB rejected the proposal. DebtBusters said it had contacted FNB; nothing since. 22 Oct: I supplied a further affidavit. 26 Oct: the hearing (case 4652/2026, Wynberg) was postponed to 20 Jan 2027 'for further instruction from Debt Busters' (attorneys' email of 3 Nov 2026). The application appears to rest on incorrect balances. Full details are in the attached covering letter.
