Subject: Update: Johannes Andries, your debt negotiations are complete

Dear Johannes Andries Le Roux,

Congratulations are in order!

We’ve reached the end of the negotiations phase of your debt counselling process. You are still on your way to a healthier financial future.

For your personal reference, attached is a document that summarises what we have been able to negotiate with your credit providers, which of them have accepted, and the terms that they have accepted.

What’s Next?

Up next in the debt counselling process is the legal phase.

You will be hearing from a member of our legal team soon. They will discuss the steps regarding the legal protection on your accounts which is being finalized.

Please note: Your reduced fees and interest rates will kick in once you have acquired legal protection.

Any questions?

Please log in to the client portal where you can find many of the answers you need. You may also call us on 086 999 0606.

Let’s get it sorted,

Dear Johannes Andries Le Roux,

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for reaching out to us.

Please be advised that the balances reflected on our system are subject to confirmation by the credit providers, as our systems are not integrated with those of the credit providers. This may result in discrepancies. We have therefore reached out to the relevant credit providers to confirm the outstanding balances.

Kindly find the current updates below:

Credit ProviderReferenceBalance
WesBank 5498 R459 973.83
FNB 5073 R220 299.56
FNB 5301 R32 159.99
FNB Credit Card 2008 R244 211.73
FNB 75081 R294 946.72

Please be advised that none of your FNB accounts have been accepted at this stage, as FNB did not accept our proposed interest rate and repayment installments. They are therefore still expecting the original contractual installments and continue to charge the original agreed amounts.

However, your legal status remains active, and the legal consultant is currently engaging with FNB in order to obtain acceptance so that the court order can be granted. Once feedback has been received, we will provide you with an update accordingly.

Should you require any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind Regards,

Likho Mdokwana |

I note that my debt review balance has increased by approximately R500,000 since May. (See attached)

Please provide:

1. A full reconciliation for every account.
2. The balances originally included in my debt review.
3. The current balances confirmed by each credit provider.
4. An explanation for the increase.
5. Confirmation whether my debt review has already been made an order of court.
6. Confirmation whether the increase results from interest that continued to accrue because FNB did not accept the proposal, or whether it resulted from an administrative or negotiation issue.

Subject: Fwd: Update: Johannes Andries, your debt negotiations are complete

Further to my previous email.

Dear Likho,

I hope you are well.

I am writing to request clarification regarding my debt review, as there appear to be inconsistencies between the information I have received over the past few months.

On 9 April 2026, I received an email from DebtBusters advising that:

"We've reached the end of the negotiations phase of your debt counselling process."

The email further stated that an attachment summarising the negotiated outcome had been included, specifically detailing:

- which credit providers had accepted the proposal;
- the negotiated interest rates and repayment terms; and
- the outcome of the negotiations.

Unfortunately, no attachment was included with that email.

More recently, on 23 June 2026, I was advised that:

"None of your FNB accounts have been accepted at this stage, as FNB did not accept our proposed interest rate and repayment instalments."

In addition, I have noticed that the debt review balance reflected on my portal has increased significantly, from approximately R745,000 to R1,240,177.

To better understand my current position, could you please provide the following:

1. The negotiation summary that was referred to in the email dated 9 April 2026.
2. Confirmation of which credit providers have formally accepted the debt review proposal, and which have not.
3. Confirmation of whether my debt review has been made an order of court. If so, please provide a copy of the court order (or the court application if it is still pending).
4. A detailed reconciliation for each account, including:
- the balance at the commencement of debt review;
- all payments received;
- interest and charges applied;
- the current outstanding balance; and
- an explanation for the increase in the overall balance.
5. An explanation of the apparent inconsistency between the April communication indicating that negotiations had been completed and the June communication stating that none of the FNB accounts had been accepted.

I appreciate that balances are subject to confirmation by the credit providers. However, given the material increase in my outstanding debt, I would appreciate a full explanation so that I can understand my legal and financial position.

I look forward to your response.

Kind regards,

Johannes Andries Le Roux

Dear Johannes Andries Le Roux,

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for bringing your concerns to our attention.

I understand your concern regarding the delay in the legal proceedings and the continued interest being charged on your FNB account.

I have referred your matter to our Legal Consultant for further investigation and assistance, as your legal stage is still active and there is currently no Final Acceptance in place.

Our Legal Consultant will review the matter and provide an update regarding the progress of the legal proceedings and the status of your FNB account. We will provide you with further feedback once a response has been received.

Thank you for your patience and understanding while we attend to this matter.

Kind Regards,

Attachments: Attachment (1).PDF, account_statement_1-Jun-2026_to_7-Sep-2026.pdf

Dear Lyndon,
Thank you for your email of 4 September 2026.
Attached, as requested:
1. Updated proof of income (Bank Statements)
2. Updated proof of residence (Municipal account)
Please place these in the court file so that they are before the Magistrate at the next appearance, and confirm receipt.
I must, however, record my concern about how long this matter is taking. My debt review application was lodged in January 2026. Eight months later there is still no order of court. Until that order is granted my credit providers continue to charge full contractual interest, so every postponement has a direct and compounding cost to me. The balance under review has risen from approximately R745,000 to R1,240,177.
The delay does not appear to originate on my side:
- On 3 August 2026, the day before the hearing, I was asked for my antenuptial contract. I sent it thirteen minutes later and your office acknowledged receipt the same afternoon.
- I understand the Magistrate requested updated proof of income and residence at that hearing. I was only asked for those documents on 4 September - a month later.
- Both are standard documents that could have been requested at any point since January.
Separately, I wrote to Debt Busters on 13 July, 27 July, 3 August and 11 August 2026 requesting the negotiation summary promised in the email of 9 April 2026, confirmation of which credit providers accepted the proposal, and a reconciliation explaining the increase in my balance. I have received no substantive reply to any of those emails.
I would be grateful for the following in writing by Friday, 11 September 2026:
1. The case number, the court, and the date of the next hearing.
2. A single, complete list of every outstanding document you require from me to finalise the application, so that it can be dealt with in one go rather than one document at a time.
3. Confirmation of what occurred at the hearing on 4 August 2026 and the basis on which the matter was postponed.

4. Given that FNB rejected the proposed rates in June, confirmation that the application before the court asks the Magistrate to re-arrange those accounts under section 87 of the National Credit Act, including the interest rate, notwithstanding FNB's rejection.
5. Confirmation of whether any credit provider has issued or threatened a notice of termination under section 86(10), and what is being done to protect my position if so.
I am not asking anyone to cut corners. I am asking for a clear timeline and a complete list of requirements, because the present approach is costing me a material amount every month.
Kind regards,

Dear Johannes

I trust that you are well.

Thank you for your below correspondence and for providing an updated proof of income and residence. I will ensure that it is placed before court for the court's perusal.

However, I notice that there is a fluctuation in your salary, please confirm your occupation / employment and reasons for the fluctuation in your monthly salary. If you are self-employed, please confirm this by attaching a police affidavit confirming same.

I note your concerns regarding the progress of the matter. At this moment, our firm does not deal with operational queries related to Debt Busters. However, we will contact Debt Busters to resolve your queries. However, I can provide you with court information as follows:

Case Number: 4652/2026
Court: Wynberg
Date of the next Court hearing: 26 October 2026

In furtherance of the above, please see attached Notice of Motion for your perusal.

We remain committed to progressing the matter and will revert to you as soon as the relevant information has been confirmed.

Kindly accept our sincere apologies for the delay in responding to your query.

Please find attached the savings sheet, which provides a summary of the outcome of the negotiation process once negotiations with the credit providers were completed.

Please be advised that your matter is currently at the legal stage, and the NCT application has been submitted for a debt restructuring court order.

We have also sent correspondence to our Legal Consultants requesting an update regarding the progress of your legal process.

Once the court order has been granted, a copy will be sent to you and the relevant credit providers for their records.

We appreciate your patience and understanding during this process.

Likho, Lyndon,

I have gone through the savings sheet against my DebtBusters portal and my credit bureau report. I believe I have found the root cause of the balance increase I have been asking about since 13 July, and it is not interest. Two accounts appear to have been captured at roughly a tenth of their actual balances at the start of the process, and the entire proposal now before the Wynberg Magistrate's Court is built on those figures.

This needs to be resolved before 26 October 2026.

1. THE DISCREPANCY SITS IN EXACTLY TWO ACCOUNTS

Matching your savings sheet to my portal by the negotiated instalment, which is identical in both:

- FNB Credit Cards (R650/m): sheet R22,339.91, portal R242,993. UP R220,653.
- FNB Personal, Student and Easy Plan Loans (R800/m): sheet R31,495.00, portal R30,129. Down R1,366.
- FNB Residual Accounts ...081 (R750/m): sheet R27,042.34, portal R293,580. UP R266,538.
- FNB Residual Accounts ...073 (R4,758/m): sheet R220,676.11, portal R206,662. Down R14,014.
- Wesbank (R8,701/m): sheet R478,578.76, portal R431,612. Down R46,967.

Totals: R780,132.12 on the sheet against R1,204,976 on the portal, an increase of R424,844.

Three accounts are paying down normally. Two have increased by R487,191 between them. If this were interest running while we wait for an order, every account would move the same way. They do not. Whatever happened, happened on two accounts only.

2. THOSE ARE THE SAME TWO ACCOUNTS WHOSE INSTALMENTS NEVER MADE SENSE

On your savings sheet, the "Original Instalment" column against the stated balances:

- FNB Credit Cards: R9,530.00 x 24 months = R228,720, against a stated balance of R22,339.91.
- FNB Residual ...081: R7,410.30 x 24 months = R177,847, against a stated balance of R27,042.34.

Those instalments are consistent with balances in the low hundreds of thousands, not the low tens of thousands. The three accounts where the instalment does fit the balance are the three that are behaving normally. The correlation is exact.

3. MY CREDIT BUREAU REPORT CONFIRMS IT INDEPENDENTLY

FIRSTRAND BANK LIMITED - FNB CREDIT CARD, account ending 2000, opened

11-05-2023:

- Account Balance: R244,951
- Instalment Amount: R244,951
- Overdue Amount: R244,951
- Acc Status: Prescription Interrupted Indicator

The bureau says R244,951. Your portal says R242,993. Your savings sheet says R22,339.91. Two independent sources agree with each other and disagree with the savings sheet by about R220,000.

Please also explain why the full balance is reported as overdue, and what the prescription interrupted indicator refers to. That is the fourth time I have asked, in substance, whether any credit provider has issued or threatened a notice of termination under section 86(10).

4. THIS IS ALMOST CERTAINLY WHY FNB REJECTED THE PROPOSAL

FNB was offered R650 a month against a credit card of R242,993, and R750 a month against a residual account of R293,580. At the contractual rate of 20.75%, those accounts accrue about R4,202 and R5,076 of interest a month. The offers do not cover the interest, let alone reduce the capital. No credit provider would accept that. FNB's rejection looks like a rational response to figures that were wrong, not obstruction.

5. THE PROPOSAL NOW BEFORE THE COURT DOES NOT WORK

Applying your own revised rates and revised terms to the real balances:

- FNB Credit Cards, 37 month term: R650 proposed, R6,692.91 actually needed. Clears in 39 years.
- FNB Personal, Student and Easy Plan Loans, 48 month term: R800 proposed, R645.27 needed. Works.
- FNB Residual ...081, 39 month term: R750 proposed, R7,679.20 actually needed. Clears in 41 years.
- FNB Residual ...073, 50 month term: R4,758 proposed, R4,237.71 needed. Works.
- Wesbank, 73 month term: R8,701 proposed, R7,652.47 needed. Works.

Proposed total R15,659 a month against R26,907.56 actually required.

The three correctly captured accounts work. The two mis-captured accounts would take 39 and 41 years against terms of 37 and 39 months. If the Magistrate grants this proposal as it stands on 26 October, I will be bound by an order that cannot discharge the debt.

6. I AM LOSING R7,878 A MONTH WHILE THIS SITS

At contractual rates, the credit card grows by about R3,552 a month and the residual account by about R4,326 a month, because the agreed payments do not cover the interest. That is R94,539 a year, and it has been running for eight months.

WHAT I NEED, IN WRITING, BY MONDAY 14 SEPTEMBER 2026

a. The correct balance for every account as at the date of my application in January 2026, and as at today, taken from credit provider certificates of balance rather than from your system.

b. A full statement per account: every payment Hyphen received from me, what was distributed to each credit provider and when, and the interest and fees each credit provider charged over the same period.

c. Confirmation of whether the FNB Credit Cards and FNB Residual ...081 balances on the savings sheet were captured incorrectly. If they were correct at the time, explain how they increased by R487,191 while I paid R17,000 a month.

d. A recalculated proposal built on the correct balances, with an honest monthly figure. If servicing the real book needs more than R17,000 a month, tell me now.

e. The date the savings sheet was generated. The only date on it is a template stamp, "Updated 04 May 2022".

f. A breakdown of the R1,340.38 difference between my R17,000 payment and the R15,659.62 of instalments on the sheet: aftercare fee, PDA fee and VAT as separate lines.

g. My credit report also shows NEDBANK LTD - NEDBANK MORTGAGE LOANS and FIRSTRAND BANK LIMITED - FNB FUSION, neither of which appears in my debt review. Confirm whether they were deliberately excluded, and on whose instruction.

h. Confirmation that Wesbank, the only provider that accepted, has not withdrawn or lapsed its acceptance after eight months.

i. One named person accountable for this file, with a direct email address. You have referred me to your Legal Consultants; VHT has told me they do not handle DebtBusters operational queries. I am not going in that circle again.

LYNDON, SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU

First, please confirm which forum my application is actually in. DebtBusters wrote on 9 September that "the NCT application has been submitted for a debt restructuring court order". You told me on 8 September it is case 4652/2026 in the Wynberg Magistrate's Court, next appearing 26 October 2026. Those are different forums, and if FNB is opposing, a consent order route is not available.

Second, and more urgently: please do not allow 26 October to proceed on these figures. On the numbers above the section 87 re-arrangement sought would be incapable of discharging two of the five accounts. I would rather ask for a postponement with corrected figures than obtain an order I cannot comply with. Please advise on whether the application should be amended before the hearing.

Third, I must correct something I told you on 8 September. I said I was "self-employed / business owner". That was loose wording. I am EMPLOYED by Get Lucky Golf at a salary of R100,000 per month. I used "business owner" because I founded the company and hold an interest in it, but I am its employee and paid a salary by it. The "EMPLOYED" description in the confirmatory affidavit already filed is therefore correct and needs no correction.

The fluctuation the Magistrate picked up has a simple explanation: the company cannot always pay my salary in full on the due date, so I am sometimes paid late, in part, or in instalments across the month, with the shortfall caught up later. I also do consulting work in my own name outside my employment, which is engagement based and irregular. I have prepared an affidavit dealing with both. Given that I am employed rather than self-employed, please confirm whether you still want it commissioned, and whether the wording suits what the court needs.

I am not asking anyone to cut corners, and I am not looking to apportion blame. I am asking for the correct numbers, because everything downstream of them is wrong and the court date is six weeks away.

Best,

Johannes le Roux

Dear Johannes Andries Le Roux,

I hope this email finds you well.

Please be advised that the balances reflected on the DebtBusters portal are subject to confirmation by the respective credit providers, as our systems are not directly linked to those of the credit providers. This is the reason for the debt dependency you have noted.

We are also currently experiencing a system issue affecting the DebtBusters portal which affect the payments and balances displayed, and our IT Department is working to resolve the matter

I have contacted FNB to confirm the balances on your account following the latest distribution.

Once we receive feedback from FNB, we will provide you with an update and address your outstanding concerns accordingly.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Noted, and thank you for contacting FNB.

I don't think this is a portal display issue. The R22,339.91 balance appears on the negotiation summary you sent me, not on the portal, and the R650 instalment offered to FNB was calculated from it. A system fault affecting what the portal displays cannot explain a proposal that was built on that figure and put to a credit provider. My credit bureau report agrees with the portal, not with the summary — which suggests the portal is right and the summary was wrong from the start. This looks more like an initial error in the account balances than an IT glitch.

Either way, it is imperative we use the correct numbers for the legal protection. When FNB reverts, please send certificates of balance per account, as at January 2026 and as at today.

Lyndon, will you please work closely with Debt Busters to confirm — and confirm that we will not proceed on 26 October on unverified figures.

Please keep me informed.

Dear Johannes Le Roux

I trust that you are well.

Thank you for getting back to me. Your concerns are noted. Debt Busters is actively working to resolve the issue on the instalments. However, we are awaiting further instruction from Debt Busters regarding your matter.

With regards to your affidavit and email dated Thursday, 10 September the description you have put forward regarding your employment and salary is suitable for the affidavit.

Dear Lyndon,

Thank you for confirming receipt of my affidavit on 23 October.

Could you please give me a status update on case 4652/2026:

1. What happened at the hearing in Wynberg on 26 October? Was an order granted, or was the matter postponed?
2. If an order was granted, please send me a copy and confirm which balances it was granted on, given the FNB capture errors I raised on 10 September.
3. If it was postponed, what is the new date, and will the application be amended with corrected figures before then?

4. Is there anything else you need from me?

I still have no substantive response from Debt Busters on the balance discrepancies, more than seven weeks after I raised them. Anything you can do to move this along on their side is much appreciated.

Please reply in writing by Wednesday, 4 November 2026 with:

1. The outcome of the 26 October hearing, and a copy of the court order if one was granted.
2. FNB's confirmed balances, with certificates of balance for every account as at January 2026 and as at today.
3. Confirmation of whether the FNB Credit Card and FNB Residual ...081 balances on the savings sheet (R22,339.91 and R27,042.34) were captured incorrectly, and a corrected proposal if they were.
4. A response to the remaining points (a) to (i) in my email of 10 September (ref wf_012447519).

Dear Lyndon,

Thank you for letting me know. I have to be frank: this is not acceptable.

I applied for debt review on 1 February 2026. With the matter now postponed to 20 January 2027, it will be almost a year before there is a court order. Throughout that time my credit providers have continued to charge full contractual interest. By my calculation the two FNB accounts alone are costing me about R7,878 a month in interest that the proposed instalments do not even cover. Every postponement costs me real money, and none of it has been caused by me.

I have provided everything I was asked for, each time on the same day or within days: the antenuptial contract (3 August), updated proof of income and residence (7 September) and the affidavit (22 October). Your office acknowledged each one. The hearing date of 26 October was known since at least 8 September, yet the matter was postponed because Debt Busters had not given you instructions.

I need full transparency on what happened. Please confirm in writing:

1. Exactly why the matter was postponed on 26 October, and what the Magistrate said or required. Please send me a copy of the order or court notes recording the postponement.

2. What instruction or information was outstanding from Debt Busters, when you requested it, and whether and when they responded.
3. Whether the application before the court still uses the incorrect FNB balances I raised on 10 September, and whether it will be amended before 20 January.
4. What exactly must happen between now and 20 January, by whom and by when, so that the matter is finalised on that date and not postponed again.
5. Whether anything further is required from me. I will provide it immediately.
6. The name and contact details of the candidate attorney who will be contacting me.

Likho, I am copying Debt Busters because this sits squarely with you. Please explain why your attorneys did not have the instructions they needed before 26 October. I still have no substantive response to my email of 10 September, or to my follow-ups since.

I want this settled. I reserve all my rights, including in respect of the additional interest and costs these delays have caused me.

Dear Saadiqah,

On 31 August your team told me my matter had been escalated to your Legal Consultant and that you, as Team Leader, were aware of it. Since then I have had no substantive feedback from Debt Busters.

Why have I not received any feedback?

Since 31 August:
- On 10 September I showed that two of my FNB accounts were captured at about a tenth of their actual balances (FNB Credit Card R22,339.91 against about R243,000; FNB Residual ...081 R27,042.34 against about R294,000). Likho told me FNB had been contacted. I have heard nothing since.
- On 26 October my court application (case 4652/2026, Wynberg) was postponed to 20 January 2027. Your attorneys, VHT, have confirmed it was postponed "for further instruction from Debt Busters".
- I followed up on 14 September, 22 October, 2 November and 3 November without a substantive reply.

I applied in February 2026. Almost a year later there is still no court order, and my credit providers continue to charge full contractual interest.

Please reply in writing with:
1. Why your attorneys did not have the instructions they needed before 26 October.
2. FNB's confirmed balances, with certificates of balance for every account.
3. Whether the two FNB balances were captured incorrectly, and the corrected proposal.
4. What will be done, by whom and by when, so that the matter is ready to be finalised on 20 January 2027.
5. The name and direct email address of the person accountable for my file.

I will follow up daily until I receive a response.

Good Day Johannes,

I trust you are well.

Further to our telephonic discussion this afternoon, I set out below the details you requested.

First Appearance (04 August 2026):
The Magistrate requested a supplementary affidavit to address the income discrepancy between your Founding Affidavit and supporting documentation (R68,400.00) and the updated income subsequently provided. The matter was accordingly postponed to 26 October 2026.

Second Appearance (26 October 2026):
DebtBusters was unable to provide our offices with definitive instructions regarding your application while attempting to address the queries you raised on 10 September 2026. Consequently, the matter was postponed to 20 January 2027, being the earliest available court date.

If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I'm writing to you directly because months of emails to your client services team have not resolved my debt review, and I need someone with authority to take ownership of it.

- I applied on 1 February 2026 and pay R17,000 a month. There is still no court order. On 26 October my application (case 4652/2026, Wynberg Magistrate's Court) was postponed to 20 January 2027. According to your attorneys, VHT, it was postponed "for further instruction from Debt Busters".
- Two of my FNB accounts were captured in the proposal at about a tenth of their actual balances (R22,339.91 against about R243,000, and R27,042.34 against about R294,000). The instalments offered on them don't even cover the interest, which is the likely reason FNB rejected the proposal. I raised this in writing on 10 September and have had no substantive response since.
- Meanwhile my credit providers continue to charge full contractual interest: about R7,878 a month on those two accounts alone, by my calculation.

I have supplied every document requested of me, usually on the same day. The delays have not been on my side.

I am asking for:
1. One named, senior person accountable for my file, with a direct email address.
2. Within five business days: certificates of balance for every account, a full statement of payments received and distributed, confirmation of the FNB capture error, and a corrected proposal.
3. A written plan to have the application corrected and finalised on 20 January 2027.
4. A refund or waiver of your fees for the period of delay.

I have prepared a complaint to the National Credit Regulator, and I reserve my rights in respect of the additional interest these delays have cost me. I would much rather Debt Busters fix this.

Best regards,

Johannes le Roux

Subject: Escalation to leadership: my debt review has stalled for 9 months | J A le Roux, ID 8901215147084, ref wf_012447519

Dear Benay,

Further to my email below: your attorneys, VHT, have now confirmed in writing why my matter was postponed on 26 October:

"DebtBusters was unable to provide our offices with definitive instructions regarding your application while attempting to address the queries you raised on 10 September 2026. Consequently, the matter was postponed to 20 January 2027, being the earliest available court date."
(Alex Williams, VHT Attorneys, 3 November 2026)

So the latest delay, almost three more months of full interest, came down to Debt Busters not answering the balance queries I raised in September. I would appreciate your response to my email below, and your confirmation that VHT will have corrected instructions well before 20 January 2027.

Subject: DEBT BUSTERS // JA LE ROUX // QUERIES

Dear Alex,

Thank you for the call, and for putting this in writing. I appreciate it.

To make sure 20 January is not lost as well, please confirm:

1. Will the application be amended to reflect the correct FNB balances before 20 January? If Debt Busters has not yet provided corrected figures, by what date do you need their instructions for that to happen?
2. Has the supplementary affidavit I sent on 22 October been filed, and does it resolve the Magistrate's query on my income?
3. Could you send me a copy of the court's notes or order recording the postponements on 4 August and 26 October?
4. Is anything else required from me before 20 January? I will provide it immediately.

Best regards,

Johannes le Roux
